

Open Educational Resources (OER) Survey - Fall, 2025

Are you using OER or affordable instructional material in your course(s)? Does that qualify your course to be Zero Textbook Cost (ZTC) or Low Textbook Cost (LTC)? Fill out this form and let us know! This is for FA25 courses.

* Required

* This form will record your name, please fill your name.

Course Information

This form is intended to apply to a single course you instruct. If you are teaching multiple courses with the same resources, please record another response. Responses are linked to your email & CWID.

1. Department *

Select your answer

2. What is the course number? *

3. What is the CRN? *

If there are multiple sections this quarter, enter each CRN on a new line in your answer. (Hit enter/return)

Resource & Material Information

Do your students pay less than $50 for your textbook/instructional material? Do they pay $0?

4. Does your course use low-cost material or no-cost material? *

Low cost is considered to be <$50. Zero cost can be OER or non-OER digital material. Other scenarios include if your department pays for guaranteed access to a text at no cost to students.

- ☐ Low-Cost Material (LTC)
- ☐ Zero-Cost Material (ZTC)
- ☐ College-subsidized material
- ☐ No instructional material

5. What is the textbook or material you use that is <$50? *

Please provide the title of the textbook or material.

6. Is your textbook or material considered an Open Educational Resource (OER) or is it non-OER digital material? *

Non-OER digital material can include but are not restricted to Canvas instructional resources (custom-made lectures) & college-provided resources (such as library databases, eBooks through Libby, or library-provided access to The New York Times).

- ☐ Open Educational Resource (OER)
- ☐ Non-OER digital material (free online material)

OER Material Information

What is the resource? This includes Pressbooks, LibreTexts, OpenStax, OTL, UML, and more. This does not include PDFs of textbooks from publishers, Google Books samples, self-hosted resources on a private Google Drive, etc.

7. Title of OER *

8. URL to OER *

No-Cost Digital Resources

9. What is the resource you use for your instruction? *

If possible, please provide a link to the resource or explain what the resource is.

If it is multiple resources from multiple sources, please explain.

Subsidized Resources

10. Is the resource a textbook or service normally at-cost to the student? *

If so, please describe your resource and how it is subsidized by the college. This can include guaranteed access through the library via the Course Reserves Program or other avenues of access.
If not, please explain.

No Instructional Material

11. Please explain. Normally, courses are required to have some sort of instructional material. *

OER Interest & Assistance

Professional development opportunities and workshops are available given demand & interest.

12. Are you interested in learning more about OER?

This can include where to find resources, what resources are available, and how to use OER.

- ☐ I'm not interested.
- ☐ I'm interested in learning more!

13. What are you interested in learning about? Please rank the following choices.

Finding OER material
Creative Commons & copyright
Remixing OER material
Using OER in general

14. Did you know you're awesome?

A lighthearted question. We're all doing great work here.

- ☐ Yes, I am awesome.
- ☐ No - I'm very awesome.

15. Questions? Comments?

Have something that does not fit anywhere else? Feedback on how the form is formatted? Other comments?

This content is neither created nor endorsed by Microsoft. The data you submit will be sent to the form owner.

Microsoft Forms